Site developed and maintained by ATTEB, California State University, Fresno with funds from the California Department of Education, Agricultural Education Unit.

2 On the Download Screen select the “no headings format

When the calendar is displayed on the screen (see sample below) perform the following steps to “copy” the calendar. From your browser window select Edit | Select All, then select Edit | Copy.

3 Open your word processing program and begin a new document. You may want to set the margins to .5” and layout to landscape. Place the cursor on the first line and choose from the menu Edit | Paste.

Now add in your local chapter events, your chapter name, appropriate page breaks, and formatting and you're done! Hint: Save a blank formatted calendar document and you will be ready for next year. Note: A sample MS-Word calendar (see below) is available for download on the Export Calendar page.

Other Ideas

Download the calendar to your PDA or desktop calendar program (see download page for instructions and ideas. Note: Many calendar programs support importing data and can print fancy formatted calendars. CalAgEd Calendar supports both delimited data and the VCalendar standard.

Create your own chapter on-line calendar and link it to you chapter web site. For instructions see: http://www.calaged.org/make_calendar.htm
